QUESTION 9:
Some people say...

STATEMENT A: McCain would be a good candidate for President because he has demonstrated a great deal of personal integrity, he has a strong military background and he has independent political views.

...while other people say...

STATEMENT B McCain would NOT be a good candidate for President because at age 72, he is too old to run for President, he is too stubborn in his issue positions and he does not always represent Republican views on the issues.

Which of those two statements comes CLOSER to your point of view on John McCain running for President in 2008?

QUESTION 13:
Some people say...

STATEMENT A: Clinton would be a good candidate for President because she has White House experience in her husband's Administration, as the first woman President she would bring in new ideas and she is personally a strong and charismatic leader.

...while other people say...

STATEMENT B: Clinton would NOT be a good candidate for President because she is too tied to all the problems of her husband's Administration, she is too liberal to win a national election and she voted for the war in Iraq.

Which of those two statements comes CLOSER to your point of view on Hillary Clinton running for President in 2008?

QUESTION 13:
Some people say...

STATEMENT A: Clinton would be a good candidate for President because she has White House experience in her husband's Administration, as the first woman President she would bring in new ideas and she is personally a strong and charismatic leader.

...while other people say...

STATEMENT B: Clinton would NOT be a good candidate for President because she is too tied to all the problems of her husband's Administration, she is too liberal to win a national election and she voted for the war in Iraq.

Which of those two statements comes CLOSER to your point of view on Hillary Clinton running for President in 2008?
